

Your invitation to the GLP Regional Global Learning Conference

Liverpool Hope University
Monday 21 May 2018, 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Following four years of successful global learning activity across a range of schools in the Merseyside area, the Global Learning Programme (GLP) and St Francis Xavier's College are delighted to invite you to this special event.

Taking place on Monday 21 May 2018 at the Liverpool Hope University, Arbour Room, Eden Building, Hope Park Campus, Taggart Avenue, Liverpool L16 9JD, registration will commence at 9:00 a.m. for a 9:30 a.m. start. Lunch and refreshments will be provided. The session will finish at 3:30 p.m., with an opportunity to stay and network until 4:00 p.m.

Why is this training important for your school?

This free event provides an opportunity for you to hear from teachers who have embedded global learning successfully across their curriculum about the positive impact that it has had on their staff and pupils and how it has enhanced SMSC provision. The event will include a keynote presentation from Alison Hooper, an inspirational Cheshire-based headteacher on using global learning to develop an irresistible and meaningful school curriculum and workshops sharing good practice.

The free curriculum guidance and resources provided by the GLP to support teaching are already used by thousands of schools across the country. Find out why so many schools value global learning as part of their teaching.

Book your free place today

Simply complete this form to book your free place. Places will be offered on a first-come, first-served basis and priority will be given to state-funded* schools in England. Free registration to the GLP is required to secure a place on the event. This will be activated on your completion of the event booking form if you are not already registered.

We hope to meet you at this special event.

Best wishes
